Simply Breathe It

A Few Minutes Use of Hyomei Four Times a Day Cures Catarrh.

The pleasantest, most convenient and the only scientific method for the treatment and cure of catarrh is Hyomei. Simply put twenty drops of Hyomei in the inhaler that comes with every package and then breathe it for a few minutes four times a day.

It seems remarkable that so simple a way of treating catarrh will effect a cure, but the most important discoveries of science have always been the simplest. By breathing Hyomei in this way every particle of air that enters the air passages of the throat and head and goes into the lungs is charged with a healing balsam that kills the germs and bacilli of catarrh and soothes and allays all irritation.

The first day's use of Hyomei will show a decided improvement and in a short time there will be no further trouble from catarrh. Its action is rapid and lasting.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei. A complete outfit costs $1.00, and if after using you can say that it has not helped you Frank Kimball will return your money. What other treatment for catarrh is sold under a guarantee like this?

Jehu's Ride.

"Two morning in the council hall And Jehu sat 'mid counsellors, all His officers of high degree, 'Twas Ramoth Gilead's captivity; A man of cunning and of skill, Of airy and impetuous will, Commander of the host was he Next to the royal family.

The prophet came. 'The hour is ripe, He whistled o'er his hand and said, 'This day will I bring down the king, Take horse, take men and hurry on And get thee down to Ramoth Gilead, Fulfill this day thy heart's desire, Cut off the line of Ahab!'

Then there was hurrying to and fro Of mounted squerens, row on row, Of archers cruel as the dart Ripe for revolt at every start, The walling of the city stood to view Till Tyrian steeds were bound there.

When Jehu with his bow and quiver, That morning one shouted 'Forever! This day thy doom, thy funeral knell, Rings, O Ahab! and Jezabel!'

Upon the wings of morning grey, Past Jebel Ashtar, towering high, Thence to the south they bend their course, Furious leaders and maddened horse, The Jewish chieftain of the cordons bared, Their onward to Bethshalem sped.

O wild, wild ride to Jezabel! Dark, dark the tragedy that befell, He whistled o'er his hand and said, 'This day will I bring down the king, Take horse, take men and hurry on And get thee down to Ramoth Gilead, Fulfill this day thy heart's desire, Cut off the line of Ahab!'

Upon the wings of morning grey, Past Jebel Ashtar, towering high, Thence to the south they bend their course, Furious leaders and maddened horse, The Jewish chieftain of the cordons bared, Their onward to Bethshalem sped.

O wild, wild ride to Jezabel! Dark, dark the tragedy that befell, He whistled o'er his hand and said, 'This day will I bring down the king, Take horse, take men and hurry on And get thee down to Ramoth Gilead, Fulfill this day thy heart's desire, Cut off the line of Ahab!'

Then there was hurrying to and fro Of mounted squerens, row on row, Of archers cruel as the dart Ripe for revolt at every start, The walling of the city stood to view Till Tyrian steeds were bound there.

When Jehu with his bow and quiver, That morning one shouted 'Forever! This day thy doom, thy funeral knell, Rings, O Ahab! and Jezabel!'

Nature History Study.

Rev. Wm. Curtis Stiles has in preparation an illustrated article for the American Boy, on the work of the Boys' Science Clubs of Norway. A similar article with more extensive illustrations is planned for the Success magazine.

From his recent article in the Boston Sunday Herald we select a few items.

About five years ago, George R. Howe began with nine boys, then about an average age of 10 years. Of these perhaps the most hopeful and energetic was Vivian Akers, who has since become the leading spirit of the group.

"Each of these nine boys," explained Mr. Howe, "was given and has pursued a special department, investigating a line of facts upon which he may become an expert and an authority, with the idea that at length he may contribute by lectures, books and articles to this branch of science. Here are some of the fundamental rules which I attempted to lay down as a working basis: To search after truths embodied in nature and her laws; to co-ordinate and systematize the knowledge thus gained; to disseminate this knowledge among the people of the locality; to endeavor to incorporate in all our acts truthful principles, regardless of preconceived traditions and principles; to conduct some original work directed toward scientific results or improved methods of scientific teaching; to make and maintain collections representing local natural history resources and beauties, to be retained and exhibited for the good of the community."

From this beginning with nine boys, who, as Mr. Howe assures us, were not selected because of any apparent superiority, the natural spreading of the movement proceeded until to-day the number has increased to 38, and includes certainly more than half the boys of the village between the ages of 10 and 17 years. From aimless creatures playing futile games in the streets they have become enthusiastic scientists, peering and prying into the bogs, forests, bowls, rock heaps, plow furrows, meadows and gorges of the whole region.

They are provided with a "kit" consisting of haversack, blanket, rock-hammer, knife, saw and hatchet. A regulation outing coat and a white hat, aiding visibility in the forest, identify them on their trips. A long trip of a week or more is made at intervals, during which the boys sleep in air blankets on the moss or earth, and frequent trips of a day's duration are taken to the various regions of the country.

The entomologist is armed with his insect nets; the artist always carries a camera. In the forests and on the mountains they meet with various ludicrous or exciting adventures. Vivian at one time climbed a ledge from which he could not descend. His only recourse was to slide down for fifty feet or more and trust to luck. His bruises were a sight to behold. Frequently a herd of deer scampers away within our view. Once we walked safely through a gorge where seven bear traps were set, never changing to step on one of them. At another time a bear was treed, but it was not thought prudent to disturb him.

The boys have designed plates of innumerable natural objects that are to decorate the society building now in contemplation. These represent actual objects photographed, mostly by young Akers, who is the artist of the party, and include mushrooms, birds, insects and their metamorphoses, vertebrates other than birds, anatomical and physiological reproductions, planarian gametic and cryptogamic botany, hyphomycetes, and scientific instruments.

Each boy has contributed a study, or thesis on his own department, and report every special observation for record. The apparatus for scientific use is also mostly provided by these older boys. They make crystal models, balances, spectrometers, goniometers, blowpipe apparatus and accessory parts of their microscope and biological instruments. And it is to be remembered that these boys are just common village boys, the oldest not more than 17.

Out of the little fresh water streams of Oxford county Mr. Howe and his boys have taken pearls from the imbedded shells that form a collection worth $5,000. From the mountains of Stoneham and from the more famous Mt. Moosajoc they have taken collections of gem stones of an incredible sum. One of these stones, found on Speckled mountain, was included in the great Tiffany collection that was exhibited at Paris, and now belongs to Pierpont Morgan. Some of the natural history specimens are so rare that great sums would be received for them if offered to the metropolitan museums or to professional collectors.

Scientists Are Interested.

Little by little this remarkable work has attracted the attention of scientists, and of the leading men of Norway. After it had demonstrated itself it became easy to secure more or less assistance. Prof. Sidney I. Smith of Yale, a former Norway boy, who has given them a valuable microscope; John S. French, Ph. D., of the Harrisburg Bacteriological Institute, and other well known men have accepted advisory places on the informal adult faculty that Mr. Howe has formed. Several Norway men have been included and with Mr. Howe have begun to awaken the entire community to the value and importance of the work.

The boys are graded into three divisions. The original nine, who are now approaching young manhood, are to constitute the faculty of the science university that is emerging to view. The second grade of boys, from 12 to 15, are called the Society for Scientific Research and are fitting themselves to assist the faculty and become instructors of the whole village in their departments. The little fellows, the Natural Science Club, are making their collections and preparing for their promotion to the higher grades.

Each member of the faculty of nine has assigned to him to assist him in his researches four selected boys from the lower grades, who, while on the trips, are under his individual direction, and he assists in their instruction in his particular department. A curator at large has charge of arranging and systematizing the collections.

S. H. Davies, Harrison; C. H. George, Hebron; V. P. DeCoster, Buckfield; J. McAllister, West Lovell, were the prize winners from this vicinity at the Maine Pomological meeting at Lewiston last week.

Old County Buildings to be Preserved.

Mrs. Horace Cummings of Paris Hill is buying out the heirs to the land on which the old county buildings are situated. When these buildings ceased to be used by the county the land reverted to the heirs of the original owners and the buildings went with the land. Hon. George A. Wilson has examined the records in the registry of deeds and will run the lines.

Just what Mrs. Cummings will do with the buildings is not known. It is hoped, however, that they will be preserved as they were left when vacated. They are old and quaint structures and should not be destroyed or changed. They will always be an attraction for people visiting Paris Hill and will call numerous visitors there to see them.

WEST PARIS.

Burned to Death.
A sad and shocking accident occurred, Sunday morning, at Bert Fuller's at Trap Corner, when on being left alone, their little daughter Ina, 2 years and 8 months old, in some unknown manner had her clothes catch fire and they were nearly all burned off her body when discovered, from the effects of which she died in a few hours. The quilt off the baby's crib was also on fire, and who can tell the result if the discovery had been delayed many minutes longer?

The funeral of the little one was held at the home of her parents, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. B. M. Edwards spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family, assisted by Rev. D. F. Nelson.

Mrs. Lucinda Small, Lullie E. Tuell and Mrs. S. T. White took a trip to Lewiston last Saturday.

Granite Lodge, F. & A. M., had a public installation of their officers for their families and invited guests, Wednesday evening, at Masonic hall. The ladies of the M. E. ad society furnished the supper for them.

Albert Bowker bought the bear skin for $15, which O. W. Robbins shot on Al. Davis' farm in South Woodstock last week. The bear weighed 185 pounds and was over 6 feet in length. The meat was nice and fat and was sent to Boston to market.

L. C. Bates has returned to New Haven, Conn. He intended to remain here a few days longer but got word that Mrs. Bates had contracted malaria, also that his brother Henry was sick so he decided to go right off. Mrs. Henry Bates remains about the same.

The drama "Under the Laurels" will be played about the first of December for the benefit of the Universalist Sunday school. The several parts have been assigned and rehearsals are in progress. This is a good strong play with a sustained plot of deep interest, the triumphant righting of all wrongs being the final result.

By request H. R. Tuell has named the street, Park street, extending from his residence by the Free Baptist church and Dunham's hall on one side to Maple street. This street has lately been graded and with two rows of trees and a sidewalk by the church it was thought, as it never had a name, that it was surely deserving of one now.

A unanimous vote was taken at the Free Baptist church meeting last Sunday morning, extending its thanks in appreciation of the thoughtfulness, labor and money, which he did not stint, expended by L. C. Bates on the improvement of said church lot and premises, also to all others who helped the same. The church clerk sent a letter expressing the same to Mr. Bates.

Walter Curtis, who for some time has been living with his grandfather, B. C. Curtis, died last Saturday afternoon of consumption. He has been failing gradually for nearly a year, when he had to give up work. He was 20 years and 8 months old, just on the verge of manhood, and where everything looked so bright and full of promise. The funeral was held at the M. E. church, Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. D. F. Nelson officiating. He leaves no nearer relatives than a grandfather, uncles and aunts. His father and mother died when he was quite young.

OTISFIELD.

An Extra Good Shot.
Bert Morey, the stage driver, made an extra good shot last Friday morning, when he shot a deer in W. A. Turner's pasture. The distance was thirty rods, and the bullet (from a 38-55 rifle) struck him in the right eye and went through the brain, coming out in front of the left ear. ## All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic. "I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial; but gradually grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." EUGENE POINER, Lebanon, N. H.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

He was found by Daniel McAllister and Henry D. Walker and taken home. He is as comfortable as can be expected.

SALE AND FAIR.

The dinner and sale held by Wm. A. Barrows Relief Corps on Friday, Nov. 13, was a very successful affair. Mrs. Coles had charge of quilts; Mrs. Chandler, dinner; Mrs. Bonney, Mrs. Annie Small, Mrs. Ford, tables; Mrs. Barrows, apportionment; Mrs. McLaughlin, parcel table; Mrs. Frank Brown received the quilt. The one by popular vote. There was a good attendance and a good time netting $10.28, which the Corps will put to good uses.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN BACON

are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Moses Dow and Mrs. Denham and daughter. Rev. Nathan Hunt, State missionary, gave a most interesting sermon at the Baptist church at 10.30, last Sunday. Geo. Packard and family have moved into the Abbott house into the rent recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunham. The circle dances are very well attended, and are enjoyable occasions for all. Extra good music is provided this fall. Last Friday there were four pieces: Messrs. Mayhew and Howe, violins; Mr. Bennett, cornet; Mr. Beckler, organ. A very brilliant meter passed over our village, Friday evening. It seemed to come from the east and went toward the south-west. It shed a very bright light and left a long train behind. Several seconds one could see small objects as plainly as in sunlight.

BOLSTER'S MILLS.

Emil Brackett and wife of Westbrook, formerly of this town, are visiting their friends here. Almora Haskell and daughter, Mrs. J. H. Stone, visited in Portland and Westbrook. The C. E. Society had a supper and entertainment at Grange Hall, Monday night. Benefit of church. Crooked River Grange will play the Crooked Down in Maine, at their hall on Thanksgiving evening, Nov. 26. Crooked River Lodge, F. & A. M., have a public installation and supper at Grange Hall, this Thursday evening.

NORTH CHATHAM.

The Sanborn boys have got back from their trip. Mrs. Seth Thomas and her daughter are sick with tonsillitis. M. N. Fife and W. D. McKenney have been to Norway to look for horses. Hazen Chandler has been perambulating the Chatham, Conway and Bartlett line.

BETHEL.

Mrs. Thurston, widow of the late David Thurston of Errol, N. H., died at her son's, Jacob A. Thurston's, in Bethel, last Saturday, the 14th. Her body was carried and buried beside her husband in the burying ground at Errol. Her seven sons were present at the funeral and the four oldest acted as pallbearers and bore the body of their mother from the church to the hillside yard opposite, some two hundred yards. Rev. C. N. Gleason of Bethel officiated at the funeral. A. F. Copeland and wife have returned to Bethel. Hon. Louis Stearns of Caribou was in town, last week. A night operator has recently been put on duty at the station. Levi N. Bartlett is now settled in his new home on Chapman street. The annual chicken pie supper at the Universalist dining-rooms was well attended, Tuesday evening, considering the weather. J. C. Billings wants to rent his blacksmith shop and tools. He will give satisfactory lease. There is work sufficient for two men the year round. See ad. Some fine deer have been taken, this season. Among them, one by Dan Spearin weighing 263 pounds and one by Will Bryant of 200 pounds weight. Two inches of snow fell Monday afternoon. But the cry is more rain before winter sets in as many water supplies are very low and some wells are entirely dry.

Middle Intervale.

J. H. Carter went to Portland a few days ago. B. W. Kimball had a sleigh ride November 7. Ellen P. Kimball has sold her hogs to Mr. Morrill of Bethel Hill. School closed here Nov. 20, a term of 12 weeks, taught by Maud Russell. Mollie Carter and her brother John were at home from Gould academy over Sunday. Harlon Cross, esq., of Conn. lake, N. H., has been doing some nice work in the cemetery at East Bethel for Mrs. Joseph Holt. He is engaged to do work in the old family cemetery on the Packard farm in Woodstock. Dennis Casey of Tegu says the old soldiers are dying off, some are taken to hospitals for treatment, doubtless to die. They deserve all the Government will let them have. We remember when a brother volunteered to go in Co. F, 23d Maine Regiment.

GROVER HILL.

I. A. Paine is soon to return home to Westbrook. Peter Wheeler has sold part of his sheep flock. Mrs. Abiah Bennett has been quite ill the past week. Martin B. Whitney, who injured his ribs, is convalescing. Mrs. S. A. Lyon of Auburn visited relatives here last week. Eli F. Stearns and wife called at N. A. Stearns' last Saturday. Mrs. Fred Mudgett conveyed the Grover Hill schoolhouse to West Bethel Flat. Pearl Whitman and family entertained friends from Greenwood recently. C. R. Rice and wife from East Corinth visited friends in this place last week. Marion E. Bennett has closed her school in Greenwood and returned home. Ruth Bean closes a successful term of school this week for a two weeks' vacation. S. A. Lyon and Bion Browne have each shot a large deer. We are indebted to them for a generous quantity of venison. Monday, Hon. Louis C. Stearns of Bangor and Nathan A. Stearns of Bethel accompanied their sister, Emma L. Stearns, who is suffering from a mental derangement, to Augusta for treatment. N. A. Stearns will visit Bangor before his return to Bethel.

WEST SUMNER.

Both Bones of Leg Broken. Alden McAllister broke both bones of the left leg below the knee, Wednesday. He was on his way to No. 4 with a pair of oxen and cart in which he was riding, and as he neared the road leading to Lester Ross's he jumped to prevent the cattle from making a turn there, and in so doing caught his foot between the body and wheel. He was found by Daniel McAllister and Henry D. Walker and taken home. He is as comfortable as can be expected.

FRYEBURG.

Dedication of the Woman's Club Library a Happy Event. A very happy occasion was the dedication of the Woman's Club Library at two o'clock. After the singing of America, a benediction was made by the president, Hannah C. Osgood. Prayer was offered by Rev. Baman N. Stone, pastor of the New church. Mary E. Warren gave a comprehensive and complete history of the "Old Stone Schoolhouse." Miss Warren gave an account of the public school, from the beginning, to a private school in the home of Lieut. Swan at Swan's Falls, to the grammar school at the foot of Pine hill, where for a year Webster was principal, to the latter part of the year 1832 when the building standing today was completed. The first teacher was Abby McMillan, who taught the winter school of 1832-33. The "Kerry Dance" was sung by a quartet, Mrs. Z. O. Wentworth, Mrs. Edward E. Hastings, Mrs. C. W. Pike and Susan M. Walker. A brief address was made by Rev. Edgar T. Pitts, pastor of the Congregational church. B. Walker McKean, superintendent of schools, then made remarks of interest; he spoke briefly of the valuable work of the State Library at Augusta. Emerson Adams, principal of the academy emphasized the value of books and stated the two things that in his estimation, make the man—what he reads—what he acquires from others. Singing of "Auld Lang Syne" by a chorus was followed by A. F. Lewis who has always been identified with what stands for the highest and best interests of the town. The last speaker was George O. Warren. He said that now the women had done so good a work, the men should come forward and do their part. Mrs. Ezra H. Osgood of Portland congratulated the audience on their beautiful room, and brought kindly greetings to all. The literary portion of the day closed with the reading of the ode written by Mrs. Benjamin T. Newman, by Bertha Harriman, afterwards sung by the chorists. A letter was read from Mrs. Lucia Griswold Merrill, now residing in Andover, Mass. It was very interesting and filled with reminiscences of old school days in Fryeburg. Mrs. Merrill is over 90 years of age. A word of greeting from Mrs. Georgiana S. Barrows was read by the secretary. Mrs. Barrows is one of the original members and has always been an active force in the working for good of the organization. Mrs. John W. Hutchins, Mrs. G. G. Shirley and Mrs. Charles Fox, with a dozen assistants served light refreshments. The day was a happy one to every member of the club, and remembrance has gone back to the occasion when the dozen women who met on August 25, 1900, and under the wise leadership of their first president, the late Mary F. Bradley, made a beginning of a good work. About two inches of snow fell Monday night. Deer hunters are plenty, this week—more so than the game. Herbert Heath and family have moved into Mr. Stone's rent on Smith street. Rev. E. T. Pitts is in Norway, this week, assisting the pastor of the Congregational church there in a series of meetings. Herbert Gilman and wife have returned to their old rent in the Tibbets building on Portland street. Mrs. Will H. Hatch, nee Ella Colby, of North Fryeburg has just returned home from a hunting trip with her husband in the Moosehead region. She captured two large bucks, two foxes and six partridges. Mrs. Hatch is one of the most accurate marksmen in New England. She shoots with a rifle that her husband had made especially for her own use. Last fall Mrs. Hatch shot two deer and a bear in the wilds of northern Maine.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, the Death Angel has again entered our Circle and called our beloved sister Eliza French to the "Land of the Shades and Cares of Life, therefore, be it Resolved, that it is but a just tribute to her memory to say that she lived and died in every way worthy of our respect and regard. Resolved, that the sympathy of Oufield be extended to the family of the deceased. Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent the husband of the deceased, and that they be placed upon our records and published in the Norway Advertiser. EMMA SWAN, Committee. MARTHA E. HILL, ETHEL M. YOUNG, Resolutions. West Paris, Nov. 17th, 1903.

GREENWOOD.

Deer Shot. As Allen Cole was returning home from West Paris last Saturday, when within one-half mile from the house he saw where a deer had crossed the road. He drove home and taking his rifle returned to the place where he saw the tracks and within half an hour from the time he left the house he had the deer captured. It dressed 150 pounds. Oscar Peabody has had the good luck to shoot two deer, and his wife one this fall. All three were killed near the buildings. A large crowd attended the dance, Saturday night, at W. O. Emmons'. J. O. Ring is working in Albany woods blacksmithing for the Paris Manufacturing Company. Marion Bennett closed her fall term of school on Patch mountain, Friday. She is to teach in the Irish neighborhood this winter. Allen Cole and Will Emmons are doing quite a business trapping this fall. They have already got over one hundred dollars' worth of fur. Austin Hayes is soon to move his family on his farm, known as the John Small farm, where they are to live this winter. They will close their place here at the City unless they can get some one to move in while they are away.

HANOVER.

Great Anxiety. Great anxiety is felt over the reports of diphtheria at East Bethel. Helen Bartlett from East Bethel is visiting friends in town. The lack of water has practically put a stop to all business of the town. E. P. Smith killed a hog last week that weighed 685 pounds when it was dressed off. Will Frost is visiting Elmer Howe, and they have put in a week's hunting at the Klondike. Will Hodgdon has moved his family to the Small place back of Howard's pond for the winter. School closed Friday and Miss Larabee left for her home in Rockland, Saturday morning. Miss Miller, who is teaching at Ramford Point, spent Saturday and Sunday with Helen Staples. There is to be a Thanksgiving ball at Union hall under the management of Solon Putnam and Elmer Howe. A supper was given in Union hall on Wednesday, Nov. 11, for the benefit of the library, which was a great success, socially and financially.

Miss Alice Bailey, of Atlanta, Ga., escaped the surgeon's knife, by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to express my gratitude for the restored health and happiness Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought into my life.

"I had suffered for three years with terrible pains at the time of menstruation, and did not know what the trouble was until the doctor pronounced it inflammation of the ovaries, and proposed an operation.

"I felt so weak and sick that I felt sure that I could not survive the operation, and so I told him that I would not undergo it. The following week I read an advertisement in such an emergency, and so I decided to try it. Great was my joy to find that I actually improved after taking two bottles, so I kept taking it for ten weeks, and at the end of that time I was cured. I had gained eighteen pounds and was in excellent health, and am now.

"You surely deserve great success, and you have my very best wishes."—MISS ALICE BAILEY, 50 North Boulevard, Atlanta, Ga.—$5000 for full original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

All sick women would be wise if they would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be well.

A Thanks Giver.

Eda Frost, clerk in S. B. & Z. S. Prince's dry goods store, broke one of her fingers by a box falling on it. She is obliged to take a vacation from work. Ethelyn Cummings is clerking in the store.

C. E. Russell and P. W. Curtis have bought A. W. Walker & Son's Norway ice business. Curtis has driven the ice wagon the past season for Messrs. Walker. C. E. Russell some eleven years ago sold the business to them. The past season Mr. Russell has been housed with a broken leg but is able now to go about on crutches.

OXFORD.

John Howe is building a new house. Edward Hammell went to Portland on business recently.

Mrs. Josiah Trebilcock has been quite ill with a severe cold.

A trained nurse from Boston is in attendance upon Mrs. A. L. Hershey.

John White and family have moved into the house belonging to Mrs. Dawes.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor from Skowhegan have moved into the house of Herbert Denning.

A Cat's Education.

One Must Begin When Pussy Is Very Young To Be Successful.

One must use a great amount of patience to teach a cat, for it must be done entirely by coaxing and petting. The cat may be taught to beg when it is very young. Three months is none too early to begin. One way is to take a piece of meat and hold it three feet above the head and say over and over again "Beg."

After doing this several times you can make the animal understand that he can have the meat for the sitting up, which he will do after a very few lessons.

To teach a cat to roll over is not quite so easy. Hold a piece of meat in the hand and say "Roll over," then put the cat on the floor and roll him over. As a reward give him the meat. Repeat this many times. To teach a cat to shake hands, take hold of the right paw, shaking it and giving him a piece of meat. When he sees that for the act of putting out his paw he will be rewarded with a piece of meat he will quickly learn that he is expected to.

Some Clothes "Don'ts."

Valuable Suggestions on Caring for Your Wearing Apparel.

Clothes, like those who wear them, require an occasional vacation. If you subject them to incessant usage they sag, wrinkle and lose their freshness. It is genuine economy to have two suits or more, and to wear them in turn. The rest gives a garment a chance to escape from the creases and resume its pristine smoothness. A little care judiciously bestowed will double the life of a suit, cravat, boot, hat or glove. That aspect of being always tidy and well-groomed, which the uninformed attribute to a long purse, is frequently but the result of intelligent and methodical watchfulness. Here is a list of clothes don'ts, supplementary to what has been printed in this department.

Don't carry heavy articles in the jacket or trousers pockets while a garment is in use. If you can't avoid it, be sure to empty the pockets before the garment is put away.

Don't wear the same jacket during business hours that you wear in the street. Slip on an old one.

Don't be parsimonious in the quality and quantity of your clothing. It's "saving at the spigot and wasting at the bung."

Don't suspend a pair of trousers by the buckle. Shapelessness is the result.

Don't wear the same boots two days in succession. It's better for the boots and better for the feet.

Don't neglect to brush jackets and trousers, hats and cravats before laying them aside. They'll appreciate your thoughtfulness.

Don't use a whisk broom on soft cloth. It wears down the nap and wears in the dirt. Use a brush.

Don't forget to wrap a garment in newspapers, freshly printed if possible, before putting it away. The smell of the ink is a better rough-on-moths than camphor balls.

Don't overlook a stain in the hope that it will disappear somehow. The older a stain the harder it is to remove.

Don't fool with stain removing preparations unless you know what you're about. Consult a tailor.

Don't plunge your foot into a sock and then wonder why it loses its shape. Putting on a sock requires patience and skill. First turn the upper part of the sock down so that it will lap over the lower part. Then insert the foot gently, pull easily and work your way in.

Don't suspend a jacket by the loop in the back. Drape it over a hanger or a chair.

Don't habitually stuff your hands into your pockets if you expect your clothes to keep their shape.

Don't treat a silk hat as though it were a rough-and-ready Panama. Brush it with a soft brush, polish it with a velvet cushion and have it ironed once a month.

Don't tug at the toes of your socks to get them off. Remove them gently from the calf down.

Don't have white waistcoats ironed so that they are stiff. Have them starched but little and left pliable.

Don't permit the laundress to roll your collars. Have them ironed flat.

Don't crumple your glove into a ball and toss them into a drawer. Smooth out the wrinkles and flatten the fingers.

Don't fancy that you save money by patronizing some dingy pressing and cleaning establishment down the alley. Better pay a trifle more and go to a tailor. He'll respect your clothes.

Don't wear the same cravat several days in succession. It's hard on the cravat and hard on your reputation.

Don't sprawl and tie yourself into knots unless you're in a bathing suit. "Man makes the clothes" more often than "clothes make the man."

Don't get into a temper because a 14½ collar won't take kindly to a 14 neckband. If you can't get the right collar in half sizes try quarters.

Don't wear a new coat unbuttoned or it will acquire a hang-dog look. Keep it buttoned for at least a week so that it will adjust itself to the peculiarities of the figure.

And, finally, don't dress as if you were a fine horse harnessing for duty. Take your time.

Husbands and Wives

Not Ambitious Enough.

There is always an element of pride in our personal affections; we find husbands and wives charming and lovable, strong and faithful, tactful and delightful. We are satisfied. Very few of us make any endeavor to stimulate these dear ones to grow into larger and finer manhood and womanhood. Very few of us are ready to sacrifice enjoyment of our husband's society that he may enlarge his personal influence or increase his power to do good. The pursuit of professional knowledge or of a favorite study, if at all engrossing very often breeds discontent at home. Seldom does a wife hold herself ready to sacrifice the hours which are hers by right, in order that her husband shall do honor to himself and help the world.

And if a wife is lovely and tender and delightful, few husbands urge that she shall keep her mind abreast of the times, that she shall count her accomplishments as possessions that must not be neglected or lost. The self-satisfying daily happy-go-lucky intercourse of the ordinary married life of you and me, men and women, who find their joy in each other, lacks stimulating force of any kind, and neither helps the other to attain or even to keep sharp and keenly ready for use what made them so attractive in their youth.

The outcome of this condition reaches to minor, but in their results important things. The toilet is less carefully made; the little courtesies of domestic life grow fewer; both husband and wife are content without these graces which lend such charm to life and keep up the traditions of chivalric devotion between the fair lady and her knight.

And we fail to grasp this power to help each other when we lower any of the closer intimacies of life by letting them descend to mutual neglect of anything that beautifies and uplifts friendship and kinship. The whole influence of a household is based on this demand of love that each shall be an incentive to the other to do his or her best for themselves and for the general good. There are homes now in my mind that are content with a drawing out of the best qualities of every one afflicted with the intimate daily life of the family. Less than mutual respect or consideration, or any coarseness of thought or speech, or any lack of deference to age or tenderness to childhood, any failure of reverence to God or truth, debars intimacy. There is a silent, imperative demand on each member of the household, on every friend and welcome guest, that they shall give of their best and live at the highest make of their attainment.

Sixty Per Cent. Latin and Greek.

"I tell you, professor, I would be better off all round if I had 'small Latin and less Greek,' as was said of Shakespeare," remarked one man to another as I took a seat behind them in a Sixth avenue elevated train last Friday. "Do you know that I have figured that I have put in 60 per cent. of my study time and mental effort on Greek and Latin, and what I have culled from them in knowledge and mental discipline has been of precious little use to me from any point of view."

"I really believe that I would be better fitted for my business, for citizenship and every relation that I now enjoy if I had cut that 60 per cent. down to 10, and given 50 to a closer study of the sciences and English literature, which should have included Blackstone and Kent, as well as Bacon, Macaulay, Carlyle and the rest of those chaps."

"If all of the men who are now helping to boost along this busy and progressive world had had to expend 60 per cent. of their young mental effort on Latin and Greek, we might have a civilization of mummies who would present a fine appearance in the ancient cereals, useful only as fuel, but we would not have much more."

"If Volta, Galvani, Franklin, Edison and others of their line had expended 60 per cent. of their gray matter on foreign languages, we would not have the lightning harnessed to this train, and if Gutenberg and his pupils, and Hoe and those who had preceded him, had given 60 per cent. of their brains to the young thought we might have some fine manuscripts, but you would not have that newspaper in your hand."

"If Watt, Stephenson, Fulton and company had made Caesar, Horace, Homer, Xenophon and Virgil their 60 per cent. mental companions while they were maturing, they might have been traveling in stage coaches and sailboats. If Copernicus, Balliell, Kepler and those fellows had been nosing among foreign roots with 60 per cent. of their thoughts, we would likely feel proud that our little speck of an earth occupied the center of the universe, and would be beating drums to prevent the dragon from swallowing the moon when he saw an eclipse approaching."

"Hello! here is my station. Sorry! for I have a lot more to say about this 60 per cent. matter. I know that some of these foxy chaps dabbled in the foreign languages, but they kept themselves down to about 10 per cent. and didn't use up their best energies on them. Good-by."

The Secret of Grace.

Concerning Methods of Physical Culture. It is one thing to have knowledge, and quite another to know how to apply and derive benefit from it. Many people conscientiously practice physical culture exercises each day, but though their health must necessarily be benefited, their personal appearance is not improved. A few general hints, therefore, will be useful to earnest disciples of beauty culture.

When you have developed hips and legs by light gymnastics, you should be able to walk properly. The test is to place a book flat on the top of your head. The head should be erect, but without the muscles of the neck being stiffly drawn. The book should not fall off as you walk. To learn if the chest and abdomen are carried correctly—the most important of all in walking—stand with your back to the wall. Your heels and the abdomen should touch the wall and be as far possible. The step must be a full, free stride from the hips, while above the waist the body remains practically motionless.

To sit gracefully, stand with the right leg almost touching the seat of the chair and see that the skirts are drawn to the left side of the body. Place the left foot in advance of the other, and point the instep of the right foot. Now drop slowly into the chair as you bend the right knee outward, and at first your position on the chair will be somewhat sideways.

Adjust the body to a comfortable pose and sink well back into the chair. Never stand with your back squarely to the chair and sit down with the skin outspread on each side. It is most awkward and looks exceedingly prim.

A white-haired matron was listening in company with a young man to the music of a pianist.

The selections were all new to the young man till the "Wedding March" of Mendelssohn began.

"What's that?" said he. "I'm not strong on music, but I know I've heard that before. What is it?"

The matron's eyes twinkled with mischief. "That," she said, "is 'The Maiden's Prayer.'"

A little boy sat at the table with his face greatly troubled. His mother smiled and a gentle intonation she put one arm around her little baby boy and asked:

"What is it mamma's little darling wants?"

But "mamma's little darling" continued to cry.

Mamma made another effort to find out the trouble.

"Does mamma's baby want some more cake?" she asked.

"No'm," said the child, while tears continued to flow.

"Does he want some more pie?" she further inquired.

"No'm," he replied.

"Well," said the mother, making a last effort to reach his case, "tell mamma what your baby wants."

The little boy managed somehow to say between sobs, "I want some of this out I've got in."

A New Cook Book Free.

New and Original Receipts by Mrs. Helen Armstrong.

Every housewife will be glad to know that she can obtain a new book of original receipts by Mrs. Helen Armstrong without cost. Mrs. Armstrong's high reputation as a cooking expert and teacher of the domestic sciences makes her receipts highly prized by every woman who desires to get the best results in her kitchen. This book is issued primarily to familiarize housewives with some of the many uses of Karo Corn Syrup—the new syrup which, by the way, Mrs. Armstrong endorses highly. In writing for the book, address, Corn Products Co., New York or Chicago.

The cool November days have come, as they have done before;
And now we hear the old-time cry—
"Say, Will you shut that door?"

There Are Others.

A man strolled into a fashionable church before the service began. The sexton followed him up and tapping him on the shoulder and pointing to a small cur that had followed him into the sacred edifice; said:

"Dogs are not admitted."
"That's not my dog," replied the visitor.

"But he follows you."
"Well, so do you."
The sexton immediately removed the dog with unnecessary violence.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Hard for any woman to do housework—to attend to daily duties with a constantly aching back. Every woman should learn the cause of backache and the cure.

Doan's Kidney Pills

relieve a bad back and cure it—cure every kidney and bladder disorder, from backache to diabetes.

Mrs. C. P. Goodnow, living at 143 Washington street, New Britain, Conn., says: "I gave a testimonial in December, 1896, touching the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills, and in the statement said that I had been bothered with my back and kidneys for over thirteen years, not constantly, but when I caught cold it generally settled in my back, making it lame and sore. Often the pain through the small of my back was so severe as to make me cry out. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills, and procured some from E. W. Thompson & Co.'s drug store, on Main street. They helped my back immediately, and in short time relieved me of the trouble. I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills at intervals during the last five years, when I felt an attack of backache coming on, and they always brought instant relief. I am never without them in the house."

OTISFIELD.

Struck the Axe in His Ankle.

Tuesday afternoon as Fletcher Scribner was cutting wood for G. A. Dyer he struck the axe into his right ankle, making a cut about two and a half inches long which required five stitches to close. He was working near W. C. Turner's house at the time and he managed to get to the house on one foot and called for help. A doctor was summoned by telephone from Oxford and when the wound was dressed he was carried to his home. The cut, though a bad one in the bone, is not considered dangerous.

Fred Bolster is in rather poor health. Wallace Edwards is at home from Poland Springs.

Mrs. Eugene Edwards is at work for Mrs. Alton York.

Maine Farms at St. Louis.

E. A. Strout of Portland, who sells farms "Everywhere in Maine," informs us that he is collecting notes and items of interest regarding the agricultural advantages of Maine, preparatory to issuing a neatly illustrated booklet of reliable information for free distribution at the Great St. Louis Fair next season.

Mr. Strout invites the earnest co-operation and personal assistance of every friend of Maine so that whether the Pine Tree State is represented by a log cabin or a mansion at this great fair, our farming interests will be faithfully portrayed.

What Mr. Strout most desires at this time is to secure plain statements of facts in the shape of letters from Maine farmers, their wives, sons or daughters, regarding the financial success with which they are meeting in the cultivation of different fruits and crops, the raising of live stock, the keeping of hens, bees, etc.; if you have made a dollar taking summer boarders, write Mr. Strout about it.

This Maine Booklet will be illustrated and you are invited to send in good photographs of cattle, horses, sheep, hay fields, pretty country scenes, and particularly views of crops of potatoes, apples, etc., that are being harvested.

During the past few months, through the efforts of Mr. Strout, more than one hundred men from nineteen states have come to Maine and purchased farms. Many of these farms were unoccupied, and while few have been purchased by wealthy people for summer homes, yet the greater part will be improved for farming purposes by a thrifty, intelligent class of people, who appreciate the superior advantages of the state and who come to us with money with which to help themselves, educate their children, and improve these properties, thus increasing our valuations, and turning the tide of immigration toward our native state.

This booklet will be of great and everlasting benefit to the Pine Tree State, for the thousands of copies scattered broadcast, as they will be at St. Louis, will result in bringing to us hundreds of home seekers with live blood and new ideas, to improve our neglected farms and add dollars to the general wealth of Maine, and Mr. Strout is to be commended for the grit and gumption shown in undertaking this to his home office in the Union Mutual Bldg., at Portland.

Sixty-Seventh Union Conference.

The sixty-seventh semi-annual meeting of the union conference of Congregational churches met with the church in Denmark Oct. 28 and 29. The meeting was called to order by the moderator, J. A. Chadbourn of North Bridgton and the devotional meeting was led by Rev. W. S. Palmer of Denmark. The roll of delegates was called and the record of the last session read by the scribe and approved by the conference. The services closed with benediction by Rev. F. B. Baker of South Bridgton.

The afternoon session opened at 1.30 o'clock with singing and prayer by Rev. E. H. Jenkins of Sebago. The question, "How Can We Make the Sunday School More Effective," was taken up and presented in three parts as indicated in the program.

The Selection of the Lessons..... Rev. F. B. Baker
The Teacher and Methods of Teaching..... Rev. E. W. Pond
The Organization of the School..... Rev. E. W. Pond

The general question was discussed by Rev. E. T. Pitts, Rev. F. E. Winn, E. L. Lewis, C. F. Johnson, J. A. Chadbourn, Mrs. J. O. Carter and others. An able address was given by Rev. E. H. Jenkins, subject, "The Bible in the House." The following committees were appointed by the moderator:

Nominating Committee—Rev. J. B. Saer, Rev. E. W. Pond, Thomas B. Knapp.
Committee on Resolutions—Rev. E. H. Jenkins, Rev. J. O. Carter, E. L. Lewis.

The evening service began with a praise meeting led by Rev. W. S. Palmer followed by a report of the work of the Maine Missionary Society by Rev. W. B. Hague. This was followed by an anthem finely rendered by the choir of Denmark church. Rev. Edgar T. Pitts of Fryeburg gave an able and interesting lecture entitled "The Twentieth Century Christian." A short statement concerning the work of the American Board was given by Rev. J. B. Saer. The session of the evening closed with hymn and benediction.

The devotional meeting of Thursday morning was led by Rev. J. O. Carter of Stow. The topic of the program for the hour, "The Place of Young People in the Work of the Church," was presented by Rev. F. E. Winn and discussed by Rev. E. T. Pitts, Rev. J. O. Carter and others. Miss H. E. Douglass of Waterford spoke on the needs and work of the western branches of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions.

The question of "The Social Work of the Church" was taken up by Rev. J. B. Saer who presented a very interesting paper.

On report of the committee it was voted that Bridgton be the place of the June meeting in 1934 and Rev. F. H. Baker preacher of the conference sermon, with Rev. W. S. Palmer alternate.

A conference committee on the Forward Movement was appointed consisting of Revs. Saer, Winn, Pitts and Palmer.

Voted that the time of the meeting of the conference be changed from the present dates to Thursday and Friday of the first week of June and October. Rev. J. B. Saer and Rev. E. T. Pitts were elected delegates to the National Council to meet at Des Moines, Iowa, in 1934.

The report of the committee on resolutions was accepted and adopted. Mrs. E. W. Pond was elected delegate to the next meeting of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions which meets at New Haven.

The sermon of the afternoon was preached by Rev. E. T. Pitts, assisted in the service by Rev. A. J. Cameron. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered. Revs. Winn and Jenkins and deacons Chadbourn and Gould serving, and the session was adjourned to meet at Bridgton in June.

The weather was favorable, the attendance good, the tone of the meetings harmonious and hopeful, and the entertainment furnished by the people of Denmark was generous and kindly.

Benjamin McLucas.

The funeral services of Benjamin McLucas, who was killed by an engine at Sebago Lake on Nov. 6, took place at Glen on Tuesday at 1.30 p. m., Rev. G. A. Downey of Jackson officiating. Mr. McLucas was born in Hiram, Dec. 6, 1872. He had spent about fourteen years on the railroad. With a splendid physique, a manly character, and a generous and happy disposition, he was very popular and much lamented.

Much sympathy is felt and expressed for the sorely stricken widow, who has become a bride, a mother and a widow all within a year. The interment took place in Garland Ridge cemetery, Bartlett.

PORTERFIELD.

Leonard Walker is on the sick list. Bert Lewis has gone to Denmark to work this winter for Mr. Fessenden.

Hubert McDonald and son Charlie are cutting wood for Nelson Lowell of Hiram.

Mrs. Mary E. Durgin has gone to Cambridge, Mass., to care for her son's wife, who is very low.

Clarence Lewis, who is working in Boston, Mass., has been visiting his brother, C. F. Lewis.

Where Prayers Were Needed.

A local preacher at the conclusion of one of his sermons said: "Let all in the house who are paying their debts stand up." Instantly every man, woman and child with one exception rose to their feet. The preacher seated them and said: "Now every man not paying his debts stand up." The exception noted, a careworn, hungry looking individual, clothed in his last summer's suit, slowly assumed a perpendicular position.

"How is it, my friend," asked the minister, "that you are the only man not to meet his obligations?" "I run a news-met here who just stood up are my subscribers, and" "Let us pray," exclaimed the minister. [Joplin (Mo.) News-Herald.]

"The Bridgton" hotel at Bridgton has been closed for the winter. The News published a picture of the house last week with this under it "The Bridgton—There She Stands." Not many words but it means a good deal to the people of our neighboring village.

The December Delineator (Christmas Number) represents the high-water mark of beauty and utility, and possibly of civility also, in a woman's magazine, having a first edition of more than a million copies. It contains 240 pages. To produce this mammoth edition 738 tons of paper and 49 presses working 23 days were required. In addition to exquisite color work, clever fiction and strikingly illustrated articles, the number contains a display of charming Winter fashions covering forty-two pages, letters from the foreign fashion centres and illustrated articles on the fashionable fabrics, and trimmings, millinery.

Confidences of Girlhood.

Young womanhood is beset by dangers to health and life. This subtle change in female organism should be watched carefully by every mother. Invite your daughter's fullest confidence. Young girls should take to establish health and prevent chronic female troubles. Miss Laura Wachter, 137 Mulberry St., Newark, N.J., says:

Dr. Greene's Nervura

The World's Greatest Tonic

"I am a young girl and my great trouble always was rush of blood to the head. My head would feel as though it would throb and my face would get all purple. I have hardly had an attack of my trouble since I began taking Dr. Greene's Nervura. I have taken three bottles in all and never feel any annoyance now. There is nothing on earth to equal Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for all disorders due to an improper circulation of the blood, and I thankfully give my experience that all sufferers may know how they can be helped and cured."

All druggists recommend and sell Dr. Greene's Nervura. For free medical advice write to Dr. Greene, 34 Temple Pl., Boston, Mass. Write to-day—it means life and health.

DENMARK.

Singular Occurrence.

A somewhat singular occurrence was the vision Mrs. Albert Jack had a few days before she died about her sister Etta, wife of Hadley Jack, who was very sick and died a few days before she, Mrs. Albert Jack, died. She asked if her sister Etta had come. She said she and Etta were going away together and were not going with a team.

Loren Merrifield and wife of Sebago were at A. H. Witham's, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner Norton went to Vassalboro, Nov. 4th, to visit their daughter.

Arthur Pendexter came up from Portland, Wednesday, and stayed till Monday morning.

The horse sheds at the M. E. church were finished Nov. 9th, and will be a great convenience.

A. H. Witham has swapped his Morgan mare with Geo. Perham for a black mare not quite so full of fire.

Two persons were baptized and received into the M. E. church at East Denmark by Rev. Geo. Palmer, pastor. A large congregation present.

Rev. L. A. Bean and wife of Kennebunkport stayed with A. H. Witham over night, while on their way home from a visit to friends in Mason and Albany.

The M. E. circle met with Mr. and Mrs. John Libby. A very large company present, nearly 80 took supper and enjoyed a very pleasant time, also a very nice season of music. Mr. Libby and wife know how to entertain a large company at their home. The circle meets this week with Mrs. Gardner Norton.

WELCHVILLE.

Mrs. Samuel Waterman died very suddenly Tuesday morning, Nov. 10th, at her home, at the age of 69 years. She leaves a husband, two sons and one sister to mourn their loss. Mrs. Waterman was loved and respected by all who knew her.

Arthur Staples, jr., has been very sick with pneumonia.

Mrs. A. L. Chaplin has returned from her visit in Providence, R. I., and Massachusetts.

Rev. J. B. Howard, a former pastor on the charge here, visited some of his many friends on his way to and from North Auburn, where he preached Sunday, the 8th. He was very popular with the people when he was here some seven years ago and his friends were all glad to see him.

NORWAY LAKE.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Partridge visited a few days in Rochester, N. H.

Rank of 100 in spelling, 7th term of school, Frank Buck, Ada Frost, Georgia Frost, Georgia Gerry, Grace Flood, Madeline Price, Mildred Pottle, Fred Stiles, Rena Wood.

Of General Interest to Farmers.

It will interest farmers in this vicinity quite generally to know that the old, reliable agricultural publication, The New England Farmer, has been removed from Boston, Mass., to Brattleboro, Vt., where it will hereafter be published under new and able management, and that no expense has been spared to make it the leading agricultural paper in New England. Subscriptions may be sent to this office at $1.00 per year. This is at once the cheapest and best agricultural paper published in New England, and our readers are invited to send for a free sample copy. Address The New England Farmer, Brattleboro, Vt.

Mabel Bearce visited her friend, Miss Stetson, in Richmond, recently.

H. L. Melcher's brother and wife of Portland are visiting at his home.

C. H. George attended the Pomological meeting in Auburn, last week.

Twenty-five from Hebron Grange visited Center Minot Grange last Wednesday.

Ethel Philbrick returned home from New Portland, Saturday, where she has been teaching.

NEWRY.

Not the November We Read About.
Mrs. Douglass found on her strawberry vines, Nov. 12, ripe strawberries, green ones and blossoms. That does not quite agree with the English author's idea, for he said, "No fruit, no flowers, nothing in November."

Clarence Bailey came home for a short visit last Sunday.

Amos Frost is working in the haypress for Orlando Buck.

Don Smith is getting to be the famous hunter of this town, every day bringing in a fox or two.

Schools began in town, Monday.

Annual wedding is soon to take place in town.

Wade Thurston came from Lewiston to attend Mrs. William Thurston's funeral.

Fitz Vail gave a birthday party last Saturday evening. Many friends were present with gifts.

E. P. Knapp has several bear traps set on Bear River, but he seems only successful in catching dogs.

M. L. Thurston and wife went to Errol, Sunday, to attend the funeral of Mr. Thurston's mother, who died at Jacob Thurston's in Bethel, at 10 a. m., Saturday.

Many friends and relatives are left to mourn her loss. We are only reconciled by the fact that soon she must be taken from our number, as she had passed her 82d birthday.

NORTH WATERFORD.

The schools close this week.

Wedding bells are to ring in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hobson have gone to Naples on a visit.

Chas. Berry has gone to Wolfboro, N. H., for his furniture.

Ed Farmer and Ed Skinner are working for Fred and Harry Saunders.

Wallace Elliott has moved into the house recently occupied by Harry Brown.

Adna Hobbs sold his household goods at auction last Saturday, and will go to Lynn to live.

Mrs. Helen Saunders went to Bangor last Monday, where her husband had recently built a mill.

Hebron Academy will celebrate its centennial during the commencement exercises the coming June.

WEST FRYEBURG.

Premises Entered and Ransacked.
Rev. L. C. Manchester, D. D., of Lowell, Mass., spent a few days in this section last week, having learned that his house on the Ridge road had been entered and the premises ransacked. It is supposed that tramps made entrance by means of a cellar window and took unwarrantable liberties with the household conveniences. Dr. Manchester is justly incensed and there is a report that he has offered a reward of fifty dollars for the conviction of the culprits.

George Anderson of South Chatham is visiting in Boston, Mass.

George H. Hill and wife spent Sunday at the home of his father, D. B. Hill of this place.

Mrs. Nancy McKeen lately returned from a visit of several weeks with relatives in Whitefield, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ward have closed their house in this place and have gone to take charge of boarding the help of a manufactory in one of the suburbs of Portland.

Frank Broughton and Everett Stanley of Cooway Center are doing the work of repairing the mill at South Chatham for Hon. A. C. Kennett, and are boarding at George H. Hill's.

Lorey Brown and Charles Farrington of North Fryeburg and Edwin Lang of South Chatham are employed in the carpenter work up in the Meade Hill house, the walls of which are raised and ready for roof and shingles.

Albert Stiles shot a large and handsome deer last week while hunting on the Chatham Double Head mountains. He dressed it, making three or four trips to get the venison home. He was also fortunate in trapping several hedgehogs, foxes, a mink and fisher.

Hon. Dana Weeks of South Chatham, N. H., sold six head of cattle at auction last week. His sister, Grace Weeks, who has been his housekeeper, is about to be married to a Portland dentist, if rumor is reliable, and will remove from her old home and associations.

B. M. Hill of Hyde Park, Mass., was the guest of his brother, Dana Hill of South Chatham, N. H., for a few days last week. Mr. Hill is the business manager of the Boston Cooking School Magazine, and his wife is Janet Mackenzie Hill, well known as a contributor to several periodicals, having a department of household economics and edibles of the before mentioned publication. Mr. Hill is interested in the progress of the house now being built for him in South Chatham.

Mrs. Mary Walker is gaining in health.

T. J. Bragdon is much improved in health.

Paschal Hutchins remains about the same, not much improvement.

Mrs. Ella Hardy had a very ill turning last week. She is better at this writing.

Mrs. Frank L. Eastman has been quite ill, requiring the attendance of a physician.

O. F. Fernald of Jackson, N. H., is spending some days with his brother-in-law, Fred H. Meserve.

Mrs. Sarah N. Stevens has been spending a few days with her son, Chas. F. Stevens, and wife at South Hiram.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the auction at D. A. Week's, Green Hill, Nov. 14. James Hardy purchased a cow from Mr. W.'s herd.

The birch lumber owned by Henry and Alexander Stevens and situated in this section is being operated on by Dean A. Ballard, who has built a camp and has several men at work for him.

Frank A. Stevens, who went to Boston on the excursion in pursuit of work, secured a position as conductor on the elevated railway and at the same time had a position offered him in Portland with the firm in which his brother, Loyce Stevens, is a bookkeeper. At last accounts it was not decided which position he would accept.

BUCKFIELD.

Killed by Dogs.

John N. Irish's and Mosely Damon's sheep have been greatly annoyed by the past season and several killed by dogs. One was a small black and white dog and the other a little larger "yellow" dog, which when trouble appeared immediately returned and more sheep succumbed. The first mentioned dog was slain and the other, as per report, started for the county seat for safety, and as we have no extradition treaty with Paris and are perfectly willing to grant favors of the kind, there will be no danger of international complications. We have no dogs to spare but what is our loss, being Paris' gain, we shall try and console ourselves, and as we learn a traveling medicine company exhibiting here has several we may recoup.

Mrs. Susie (Dunham) Stoyer of Auburn is in town visiting old friends.

Dr. A. E. Cole followed a deer, Tuesday forenoon, then gave up the chase.

Herbert Hall and wife of Melrose, Mass., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hall.

Milford Irish and Mrs. Benj. Y. Benson of Whitman, Mass., are visiting friends in town.

The village schools gave an exhibition and entertainment, Friday evening, $25 being netted. The proceeds are to be applied to the purchase of a flag.

Rev. W. D. Athearn of Lisbon, who has spoken here and at Sumner two Sabbaths on trial, has received a unanimous call and will commence his pastorate Nov. 22.

G. Russell sold his farm to Leo Russell.

Mrs. Chas. Dunn has been visiting in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Ada Lowe of Medford, Mass., is visiting in town.

E. Burns and Martin have bought and are packing Charles Dunn's apples.

F. Q. Elliott saw two deer in a pasture near his house Sunday. Mrs. Agnes Peabody recently killed one near their residence. Her husband wounded one and when he went to dispatch it was injured some as the deer showed fight, but Mr. Peabody came off conqueror.

PARIS HILL.

Death of Benjamin S. Doe.
Mr. Doe, who fell from a staging while at work on Prentiss Cummings' house, Nov. 9, died Nov. 16, as a result of his injury. Although falling, but six feet or so he struck the back of his neck fracturing one of the upper vertebrae and paralyzing all the lower portion of his body.

He was a very estimable man and had served several years on the board of selectmen. He was a carpenter by trade and in great demand from the excellency of his work.

He was son of Amos W. Doe and was born Apr. 14, 1836. His first wife was Mary, daughter of Cyrus H. Ripley, who died in 1879. Her children are:

Mrs. Geo. W. Berry, South Paris.

Mrs. Frank S. Harlow, Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. John S. Harlow, Dixfield.

Cyrus L. Doe, Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. H. C. Wright, Salem, Mass.

Mrs. Burt L. Hudson, Watertown, Mass.

Grace F. Doe, Cambridge, Mass.

His second wife was Kate H., daughter of Dea. Gibbs Benson, North Paris, who survives him. Children:

Benjamin S. Doe, Paris.

Freeland Doe, Paris.

Local Union Y. P. S. C. E.

The annual union of the East Oxford Local Union held with the Paris Y. P. S. C. E. on Tuesday, was an interesting and helpful meeting. Owing to the bad weather and worse traveling, the attendance was small, but those who braved the storm were well repaid by the enjoyable exercises.

The address of the afternoon was absent, but others spoke for them.

K. Flanders of the Brunswick was on the line of the whole session, power, especially communicating power. Mr. Flanders also gave several vocal selections and led the singing of the closing exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. Will P. Marston have moved to South Paris.

Charles Andrews, who lately sold his place on the highlands east of the village, has bought the J. J. Slattery house on Tremont street. Mr. Slattery is undecided as to where he will locate.

IMPORTANT CHANGE IN TINWARE

One of the long-felt wants of this vicinity is for a better class of tinware than the common I. C. goods at hardware and variety stores, and at the same time something lower in price than the I. X. or double thick ware. To meet this want I have arranged with Mark Lyon of Michigan for his famous Lyon Brand Tinware.

Mr. Lyons owns, as he asserts, "The best tin mine on this continent," mines his own tin, makes his own tin plate, manufactures his own tinware and shapes his fingers at the Tin Plate Trust. The Lyon Brand tinware is the same weight and thickness as corresponding grades of the trust goods, but the iron base is covered with good honest coating of good tin and will wear well. One of the Lyon Brand tin dishes will outwear half a dozen of the trust goods which are washed over with the thinnest possible covering of tin.

Preserve this important price list, it will save you dollars. Stamped milk pans, 25 per cent. heavier than trust pans, 2 qt. 3c, 4 qt. 5c, 6 qt. 8c, 8 qt. 10c, 10 qt. 12c. Deep basins, pint 3c, 2 qt. 5c, 4 qt. 7c, 8 qt. 10c. Pie plates, 9 inch 3c, 10 inch 3c. Dippers, half-pint 2c, pint 3c, quart 5c, 2 qt. 5c. Dish pans, 10 qt. pieced 10c, 10 qt. stamped 15c, 14 qt. double thick 25c, 17 qt. I. X. 35c. Kettles, 4 qt. 10c, 5 qt. double tin 15c, 8 qt. double tin 25c, 10 qt. 25c. Medium 5c, largest 10c. Covered pails, 2 qt. 5c, 4 qt. 10c, 6 qt. 15c, 8 qt. 20c. Steamers, small 15c, medium 20c, large 25c. Coffee pots, 2 qt. 10c, 3 qt. 12c, 4 qt. 15c. Wash boilers, 8 or medium size, with copper bottom, 75c, 9 or largest, double 15c. Wash boilers, triple thick $1.15. All copper wash boilers, $1.05. Tea kettles, small 2 qt. 10c, medium 7 qt. with copper bottom, 35c, 9 qt. double thick 50c. All copper tea kettles, nickel plated, 80c. Milk cans with bails, U. S. standard measure, quart 8c, 2 qt. 10c, 4 qt. 15c. Coal hods, sheet iron 25c, galvanized iron 35c. Stove-pipe elbows, 5 inch 5c. Lyon Brand tin pails are best value in tinware and 10 qt. flaring pails 10c, well made from good tin, with strong wire round top and 10 qt. extra thick bottom, heavier than 25c trust pail and will wear longer; 10 qt. dairy pail 20c, genuine I. X. or double thick tin with double coating of tin, same weight as 50c trust pail, and will outwear it because of the double coating of tin.
